CLASS HISTORY

On September 8, 1936, fifty-nine "green horns" as we were then known, entered Midvale High School. As freshmen we wandered hopelessly and fearfully through the strange rooms, getting ourselves accustomed to the surroundings. After becoming acquainted with our teachers and classmates, we proved ourselves to be very good freshmen. Our adviser, Mr. Lembright, helped us through some very uneasy moments.

As Sophomores, and not quite so timid, we really became a part of the institution and all of us were very active in the school parties and athletics. It was in this year our present adviser, Miss Moore, became known to us. Her careful guidance has helped us over the many obstacles that high school days naturally bring.

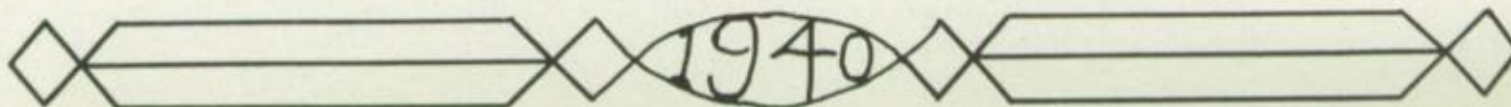

To our astonishment our Sophomore year slipped by rapidly and before we knew it we were Juniors. Our Junior play, "I Like Your Nerve" was one exciting event of our Junior year. Then the Junior-Senior banquet brought the year to a close, with many successes and honors.

And then the Senior year--the year of all years - - approached! Even though our class had diminished to twenty-nine members we be- with vim and enthusiasm. The presentation of the class play, "Professor, How Could You" and the publication of the "Midhian" marked our final accomplishments.

Now our high school career is at an end. We sincerely hope that our presence at dear old M. H. S., has created a feeling of friendship and loyalty in the hearts of the under-classmen. We Seniors wish to express our gratitude to the parents, faculty and friends for their assistance in aiding us to reach this goal.

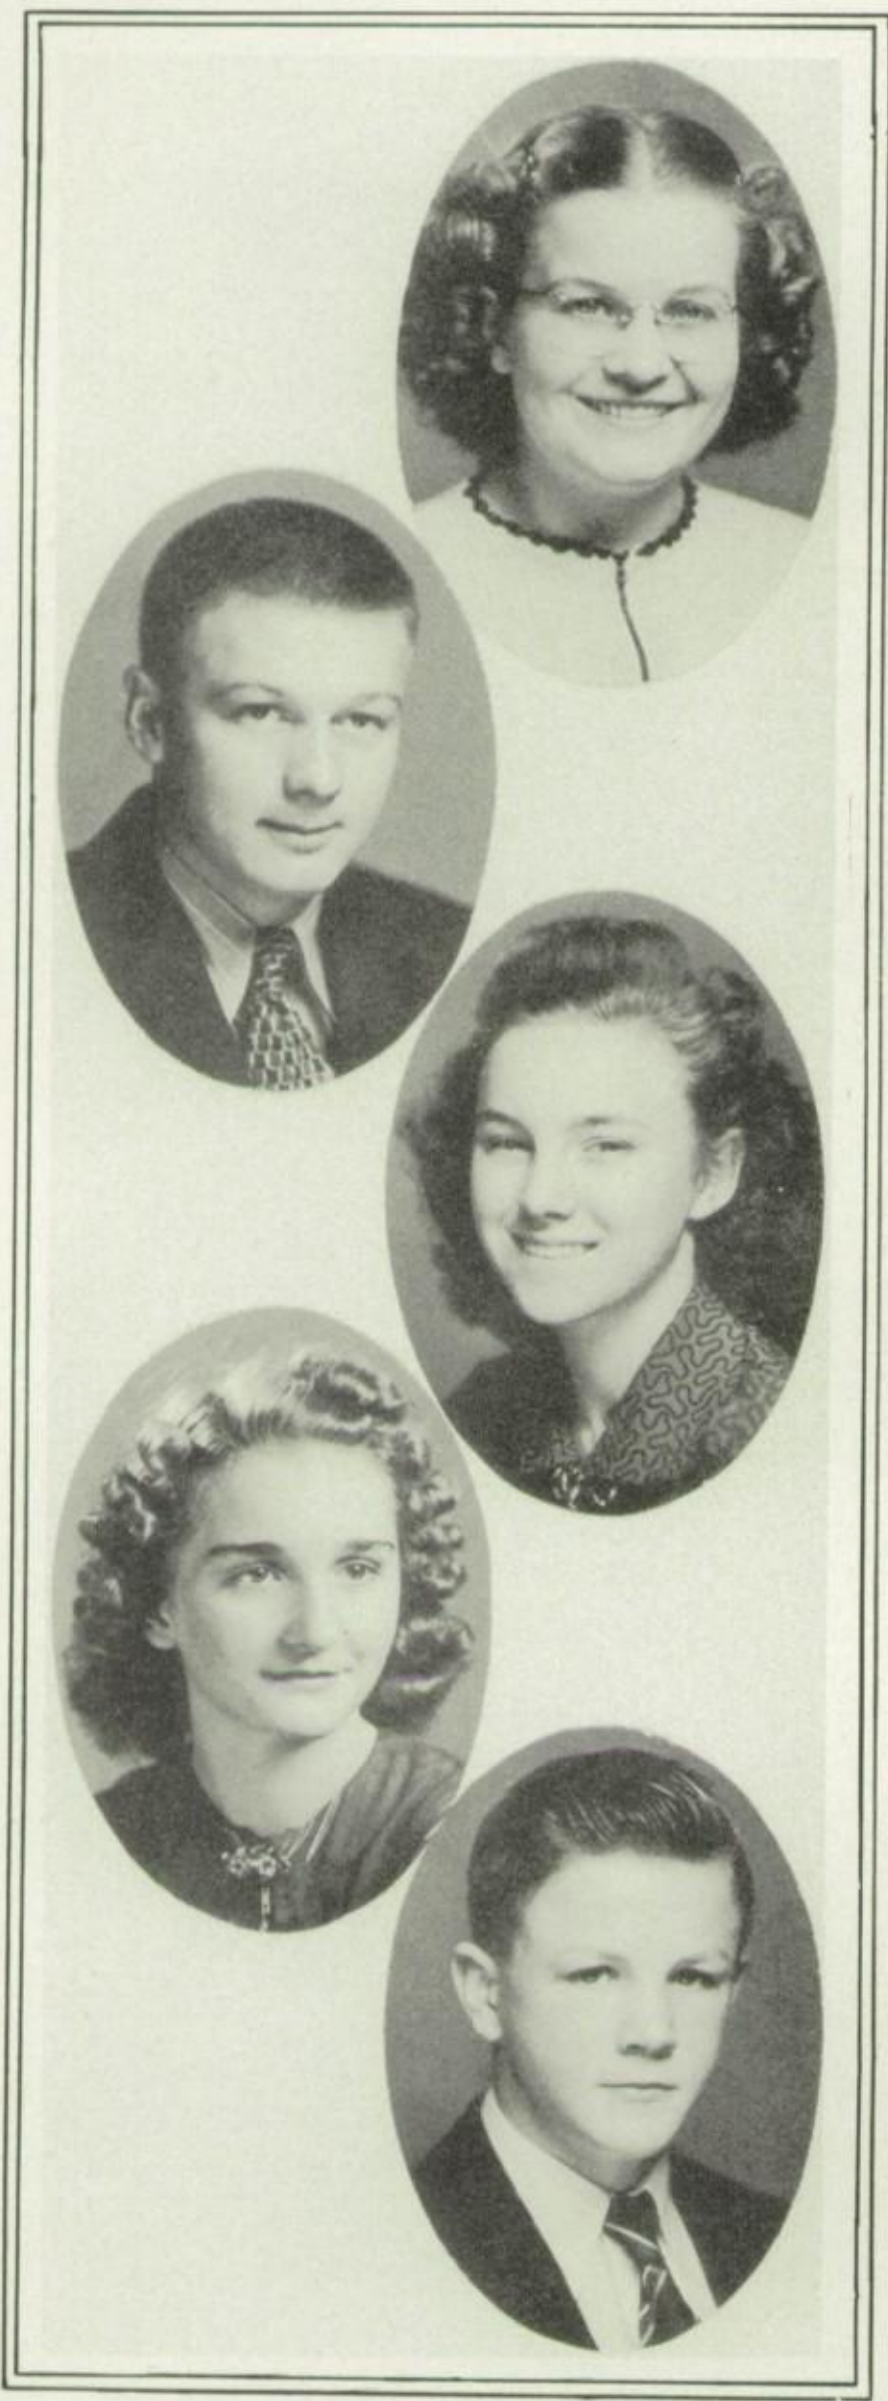

For some of us, school days are not at an end. Some have decided to go still higher in the field of education. To these we wish to extend our best wishes of good cheer, good luck and success for the coming years.

As we make our final exit from this building, may we dare hope that we have done some good for future graduates of Midvale High. If, at any time, the class of '40 can be of assistance to anyone, in any way, we are sure that that service will not be denied.

Class Will

We, the Seniors of Midvale, Class of 1939-40, all possessing tender hearts, loving and generous dispositions, amiable personalities, do make this our last will and testament. First, we request that our just debts be taken from the class treasury.

To the Senior Class of 1940-41 we bequeath a portion of our amity, veracity, and our acquired knowledge.

To the Junior Class of 1941-42 we leave a share of our intellectual power.

To the Sophomore Class we bequeath a part of our integrity and sincerity.

To the future Freshmen our best wishes for their success in Midvale High School.

To Miss Moore, who has rendered her kindly assistance to each of us, we bequeath our love and appreciation.

We the departing Seniors of 1939-40, do hereby bequeath the following:

Betty Baldwin--my school girl complexion I will to anyone needing it
Robert Baldwin--I bequeath my basket-ball ability to Eugene Grimm
Lola Beahm--my desire for reading I bequeath to Eileen LeMasters
Dana Bean--my pleasing personality I leave to anyone deserving it
James Carlisle--my nick-name "Little Man" I will to William Haney
James Cookson--my way of blushing at pretty girls to "Nubby" Paris
Robert Cookson--my enchanting "way" with the ladies to Bill McCartney
Louis Dallau--my argumentative power for debate to Pierino Pede
Robert Dolzani--my incredible mischievousness to Anthony Amicone
Zelda Frantz--my desire for writing loveletters to Henrietta Concini
Anna Gray--my ever-lasting love for journalism to Kenneth Fouts
Madge Grimm--my glasses I will to Gloria Dutton who needs them
Eileen Holmes--my quietness and reticent disposition to Hazel Ickes
Dan Johnson--my persuasive and contradictory power to my sister Joan
Marilyn Keffer--my accentuated dimples I will to Virginia Price
Ray Myers--my "beautiful" friendship with Max Paulus I will to Amanda Herron

Warren Leggett--my superstructure which is six feet, to Gerald Wilson
Ernest Leggett--my position on the Midhian Staff I will to anyone who can meet the qualifications

Anna Leone--I leave my happy-go-lucky attitude to Katherine Dutton
Maxie McCartney--my giggles I reluctantly will to Dorothy Wilson
Hugh Meese--I will a portion of my pleasantness to Leale Anderson
Bill Meese--my dislike for girls to Glen Booth, who is usually conversing with the feminine sex

Max Paulus--I leave my sculptured curls to Laird Walker
Janice Rausch--my public speaking ability I leave to my sister Carol
Wilma Scott--my long eye lashes and big brown eyes to Eleanor Snyder
Kate Smith--I bequeath my love for culture and musical talent to
Adeline Beahm

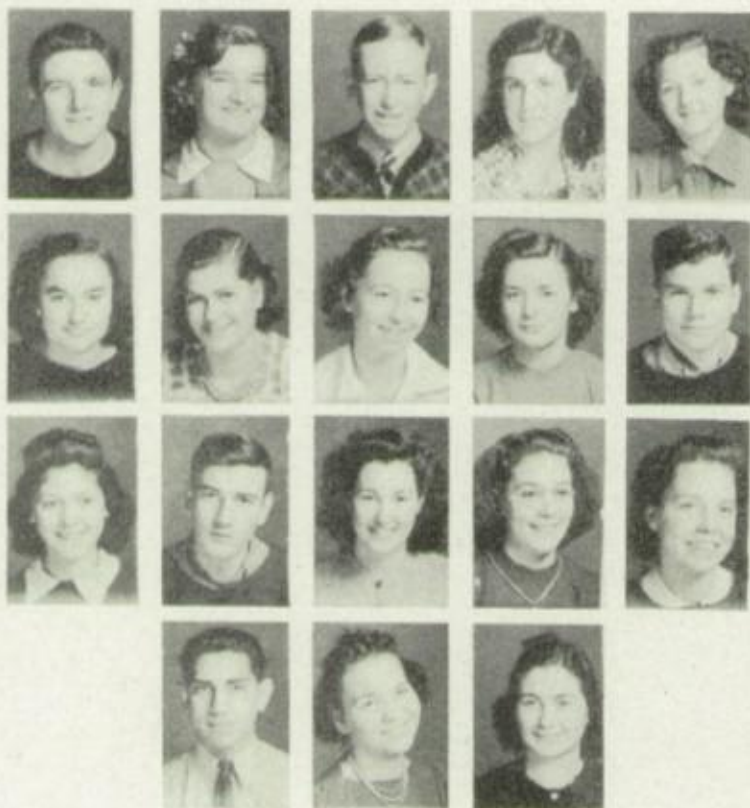

Roland Sparks--my desire for knowledge I will to Matchy Downing
Margaret Williams--my secret ambitions I will to Wanda Sokowaski
Adrian Wisintainer--my pesky pestiferousness to John Carnahan

We hereby appoint Miss Moore Executrix of our estate and wish to thank her for being a faithful adviser and friend through our years at Midvale High.

SOPHOMORES

Class of 1942

Once again we assembled at Midvale High School as Sophomores of 1939-40, still under the capable leadership of Mr. Hawkins. We had the largest Sophomore class in the history of the school.

Grand times were had at the high school-basketball, plays, band carnival. We tried hard to be good students, so that all of us might take our place as juniors of Midvale High next year.

FRESHMEN

Class of 1943

On September 7, 1939, a group of very nervous, excited freshmen gathered in the study hall to begin their first year of high school under the leadership of Miss McCollam.

Some of the boys made the basketball team, and a number of students were on the honor roll. We are studying hard so that this year we will complete another step in our high school education.

SPORTS

Sports

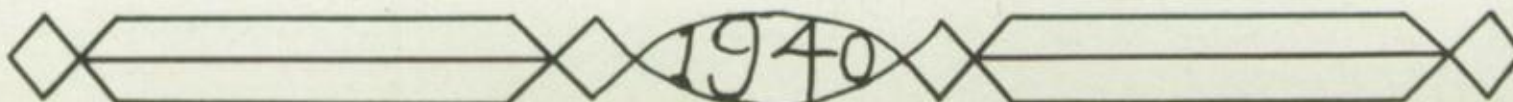

Another successful year in athletics has been completed by the Midvale Blue Devils. This year will be long remembered as one of the most thrilling in Midvale's history.

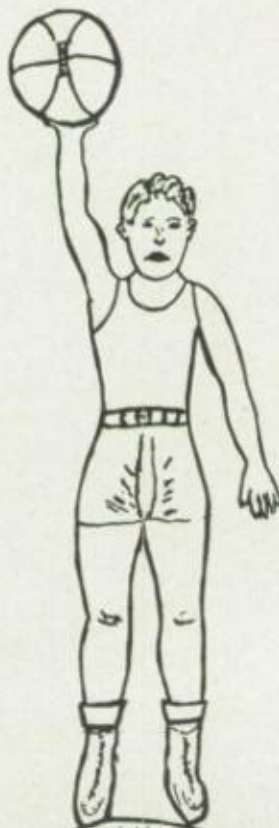

The Midvale High School Track and Field team went down fighting with a third place in the Invitation meet at Urichsville. In a dual meet with West Lafayette, they emerged victorious. They won the county meet by an over-whelming score in which Sugarcreek was their closest competitor. The Midvalers came in second at the District meet against keen competition.

The Midvale nine started the 1939 baseball season off with a bang. We met Tuscarawas at home and, behind the consistent pitching of Bill Holmes, we piled up a lopsided score of 12-3. Then we met Port Washington and downed them easily by a score of 15 to 3. Due to Bill Haney, promising Goshen lad, the Midvale Blue Devils were able to down a tough Bolivar team 6 to 2. The Devils edged Tuscarawas in a hard fought battle, 10-6. Journeying to Bolivar in our next game, the Blue Devils had to fight an uphill battle, but finally came out on top 12 to 8. We tasted defeat for the first time when the Gnadenhutten Indians set us back by a score of 10 to 4.

The Midvale Blue Devils began the 1939 basketball season by winning the first four games in easy fashion. In the fifth game we met up with our old rivals, the Strasburg Bengals. The contest was close, but finally ended in defeat for Midvale, 22 to 20. The Blue Devils then went along smoothly until they met Dennison, where they met defeat for the second time by a breath-taking score of 17 to 16. After drubbing Dundee 45 to 27, we met Strasburg for the second time. With "Buzzy" Young showing the way, we over-whelmed the Bengals 30 to 21. We again hit our stride rolling over Sherrodsville and Mineral City. Our third and last defeat of the regular season was to Bolivar, 17 to 13. Next we walloped a strong West Lafayette five by a score of 41 to 29. In our last league game we edged Tuscarawas 38 to 36. The season ended in a three-way tie for first place in league games. We won our first two tournament games. In the third, we defeated Tusky 29-25. Ford, with four seconds remaining to play, gave Midvale the edge over Strasburg, 28-26. We trounced Millersburg and Berlin to earn a position at the District in Dennison. There we defeated Chesterhill 39-34. In the finals we drubbed West Lafayette 56-30, making us the District representative to Columbus. In our first game at Columbus we met Bluffton and beat them 43 to 33. The rangy Smithfield bunch defeated us 39 to 29, thus ending our season. We have quite a number of new trophies to add to our already goodly number, a league trophy, a County Tournament trophy, a District trophy, and individual medals.

Good luck to Baldwin, Leggett, Dallau, Johnson, Morrison whose dazzling basketball careers ended with this season. We hope that the teams in coming years will have many more successful seasons for good old Midvale High and that they always live up to our ideals of sportsmanship.

SENIORS

Four long years ago our ship rowed in
And landed a crew of seventy-eight men;
They were green but all of a kind--
A very happy group you will find.

We started the Sophomore year with a shout,
Some continued and some dropped out;
We studied hard so we could pass
And entered victorious the Junior Class.

We got to be Juniors 'tis a fact,
Candy to sell and a play to act;
Lots of fun and lots of cheer
Hoping to be Seniors the following year.

This year we are Seniors, friends to all
Heroes are made, never to fall!
And now thirty Seniors must say good-bye,
Some will laugh and some will cry.

After all is said and all is done,
We wish to say to everyone--
We Seniors tried to be kind and true
Remember us--'cause we can't forget you!

-Zelda Frantz

A HIGH SCHOOL

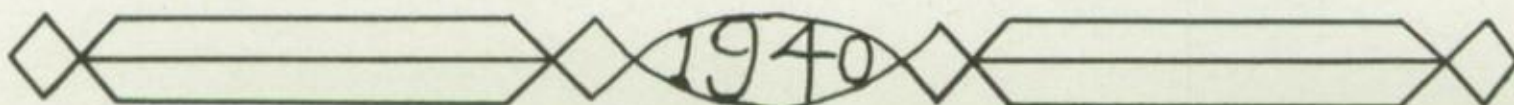

We think of it when we're far away,
We see it each and every day;
It seems to become a part of our lives--
Something for which we struggle and strive.

We see our friends and even our beaux,
We dream of parties and talk of shows;
If we've skipped to go to town
The truant officer will be around.

Now all of us will truly admit
That we have done such a little bit,
And if we had a chance to start again
We'd be able to act like gentlemen.

You wonder what I'm talking about?
Anyone could guess without a doubt!
We have readin', 'ritin', and also a rule
In that good old place, "a high school."

VICTORY OVER W. LAFAYETTE SENDS DEVILS TO OHIO WARS

Form of B Champions Impressive Last Saturday In Finals at Dennison

MIDVALE STUDES
CELEBRATE TODAY
There were no classes at Midvale high school this morning. The reason? The student body celebrated the school's county class "B" basketball championship which was won in a close contest with Strasburg at Dover last Saturday night. One of the celebration features was a rally around a huge bonfire built near the main highway.

I LIKE YOUR NERVE

This delightful, three-act farce was presented November 16, 1939 at the School Auditorium. The small, mid-western town by the name of Shady Greens provided the setting for this hilarious comedy.

The curtain of the first act found Whitey, manager of the hotel at Shady Greens, busy at his desk in the hotel lounge. There followed a terrible mix-up when the hotel guests heard of robberies that had occurred in near-by Dewport, where numerous millionaires found relaxation during the summer season. The police had been unable to find the crooks, and McCafferty, a plain clothes detective, expected the biggest robbery of the season to occur at Shady Greens Hotel that night. That afternoon a young bachelor named Jimmy Anderson had a collision with another young man. Jimmy was brought into the hotel, not hurt, but a trifle ruffled. There he met his friend McCafferty, and the jolly Irishman persuaded Jimmy to disguise himself as Count Divani, who in the end turned out to be the ringleader of the crooks. The play had the audience in continuous laughter thru characters, Oscar Oop and Lucy Betts, who played comedy leads.

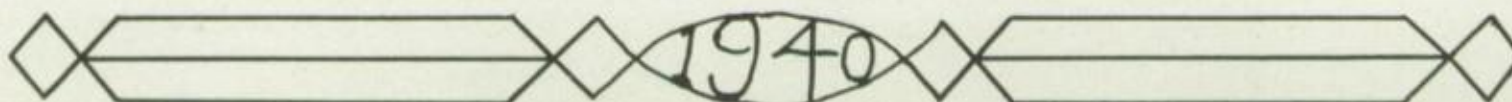

The climax took place when Oscar Oop and his fiancée Lucy solved the mystery by discovering the scarab. Jimmy and attractive Mary Newton fell in love as was expected. The final curtain closed on a very happy and excited group who portrayed "I Like Your Nerve."

PROFESSOR, HOW COULD YOU!

"Professor, How Could You," a farce in three acts, was presented April 17, 1940, at the High School Auditorium.

The story takes place in a small college town. The dean of the college is resigning and his deanship is offered to Keats Perry, a young professor of history at the college. However, Keats is not eligible for the position until he is married which must be done within three days. Grandpa Perry, Boggins, the butler, Vicky Randolph and John Appleby plan a little scheme to get Keats a wife. They each place a bet on a girl whom they think will be suitable for Keats. The girls in the race for the wife are Valerie Whitman, a Southern charmer; Priscilla Morley, a sweet young girl; and last but not least, Tootsie Bean, a plump spinster who tries vigorously to get Keats by her "lemon chiffon pie". A dinner party is held to get the girls acquainted and from there on everything is a continual mixup until John Appleby, Keats' helpful friend, impersonates a girl, supposedly Keats' wife. He brings three children on the scene only to complicate matters more.

The climax comes when Keats declares Vicky Randolph as his true love. Grandpa is delighted because he has secretly placed a bet upon Vicky. Grandpa wins the money and Keats gets the deanship.

The best plan to buy meats is to purchase from a dealer who puts his personal guarantee on what he sells. In our time, we've turned down some mighty attractive buys because of the quality of the merchandise. When we buy from our wholesalers, we consider quality and price. You benefit from that consideration.

June J.: I was just insulted by a strange man.

Wanda R.: What did he do?

June J.: He wouldn't speak to me when I waved at him.

* * * * *

Irate Pa: What do you mean by bringing my daughter in at this hour?

Frank M.: Well, I gotta be at work by seven.

* * * * *

Garageman: Check your oil?

Glen K.: No, I'll take it with me.

* * * * *

Matchy D.: Lately I have fallen into the habit of talking to myself.

John D.: I wondered why you looked so bored.

* * * * *

Photographer: Do you want a large or small picture?

Ernie L.: A small one.

Photographer: Then close your mouth, please.

Gerald Y.: Have you a speaking part in the Jr. Play?

Leale Anderson: No, I play the part of a husband.

* * * * *

Miss M.: Can you operate a typewriter?

Elsie W.: Yes ma'am, I use the Biblical system.

Miss M.: I never heard of it.

Elsie W.: Seek and ye shall find.

Mother Cat: Tommy, your neck is not clean.

Tommy Cat: I'm sorry, mother, it was merely a slip of the tongue.

* * * * *

Robert Baldwin: What kind of skin makes the best slippers?

Max Paulus: Banana skins.

We overheard two small children in a boastful conversation the other day.

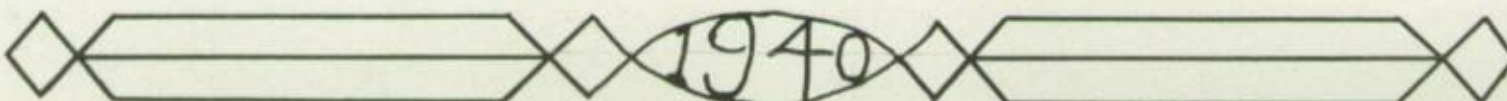

"My father", said the first, "has electricity in his hair."

"That ain't nothin'", came back the second, "my old man has gas in his stomach."
